Trained in Photography & Fine Art at RMIT & Deakin, Dimitri was lucky enough to be accepted into the directing stream of the VCA school of film and Television. After graduating he gained further experience through Assistant Directing, working on productions such as The Great Gatsby, Underbelly, Superman Returns, Farscape, Mission Impossible 2, Dark City and Babe among many others.

Dimitri's wrestling documentary, "Big Men; Bigger Dreams" screened on SBS and garnered both Dendy and AFI nominations as well as strong reviews. His short films "Dream What You Want" and "The Squirrel King" have both been Tropfest finalists and his recent short "Ruby" won best short at the Burn by Night festival and best screenplay & actor awards at the Bad Wolf Festival in New Orleans. His current short, Dead AS, premiered at this year's StKilda Film Festival.

He is currently developing feature projects as well as two feature length documentaries while always seeking future collaborations and story telling opportunities. Visit my site here.
